American Beauties

14 homegrown design heroes

Richard Keith Langham Inc.

WORDS OF WISDOM: "Rooms should be comfortable, layered, and appointed with furnishings and details that acknowledge the past, albeit with a fresh and clear approach."
PROJECTS: A Georgian townhouse in London, a McKim, Mead & White house in Greenwich, Connecticut ("that I first decorated 20 years ago").
CLIENTS: Blaine Trump, John Goodman.
COMING UP: A book from Rizzoli, due out in October.

Suzanne Kasler Interiors

STYLE: "The traditional with the contemporary, high and low, linens and velvets."
PROJECTS: Bramble Hall event center at Blackberry Farm in Tennessee, a French Colonial house near New Orleans.
IN THE WORKS: Fabrics for Lee Jofa, furniture for Ballard Designs and Hickory Chair, lighting for Visual Comfort.
THE NEXT BIG THING: "Decorating that isn't so perfect."

Tucker & Marks Inc.

PHILOSOPHY: "Make it individual, make it beautiful" are words designers Suzanne Tucker and Timothy Marks live by.
PROJECTS: A villa on the San Francisco Peninsula, a ranch in Aspen, a vacation home at Yellowstone Club in Montana.
FAVORITE MUSEUM: "Any house museum—Isabella Stewart Gardner in Boston, the Soane in London, Villa Kérylos in the South of France."
THE NEXT BIG THING: "Color—banish the beige!"
