

INSIDE EDITION

LUXE TAPPED TALENTED LOCAL DESIGNERS FOR THEIR BEST SOURCES AND RECOMMENDATIONS TO SHINE A LIGHT ON SOME OF SAN FRANCISCO'S FINEST OFFERINGS IN ART AND DESIGN.

"Sue Fisher King is a treasure—both her namesake store and Sue herself. She's been a shopkeeper since 1978. Her store is my staple for stylish and chic finishing touches for a home: dishes, linens, flatware, glasses, bedding and bath accessories. Plus, it's the best source for any hostess or holiday gifts."

—SUZANNE TUCKER

"We really enjoy working with Daniel Killar at Nido Living. He has a unique and refined eye and access to many of the Italian designers that we've come to love. The elements and art he showcases in his ample space always leave me inspired. We work with a lot of gorgeous showrooms here in the city, but Nido provides excellent customer service in addition to inspired beauty."

—PAIGE LOCZI

"Lost Art Salon is my go-to for large- and small-scale works, in addition to well-curated objets d'art. The staff always points you in the right direction; plus, they loan out art on approval, which allows my clients to see pieces in their spaces before committing. It's great for finding that last perfect element that just ties the project together."

—REGAN BAKER

CHECK IN SINGLE THREAD

The long-awaited farm-driven restaurant and inn in downtown Healdsburg, Single Thread, is finally taking reservations for its five thoughtfully appointed on-site guest rooms for diners looking to extend their 11-course tasting menu into an overnight stay—a must for those looking to fully experience Kyle and Katina Connaughton's legendary hospitality. "Single Thread is meant to be an extension of Kyle and Katina's home," says general manager David Sisler. "And while we're obviously here to serve our guests, the hope is that we feel more like friends." Firmly rooted in Japanese principles and traditions surrounding food and service, Single Thread leaves no detail to chance. Designed by San Francisco firm Avroko, rooms feature custom furniture, heated floors, Japanese toilets, Matouk linens, Ratio pour-over coffeemakers and Teforia's state-of-the-art tea brewing system. A delicate balance of old and new, rooms are decorated with vases made by eighth-generation master potters from Japan (who also crafted the restaurant's donabe clay pots and dishware) and Jiangme Wu's onion flower-shaped paper lanterns, and provide individual iPad-controlled WiFi that powers in-room devices. When guests wake up each morning, they will be treated to a choice of Japanese breakfast or eggs and vegetables fresh from the nearby farm. singlethreadfarms.com

SAVE THE DATE THE SUMMER OF LOVE EXPERIENCE: ART, FASHION AND ROCK & ROLL

The psychedelic 1960s make a comeback this April at the de Young museum for a 50th anniversary celebration of the colorful counterculture that blossomed in the years surrounding the Summer of Love. The exhibit—taking place from April 8 to August 20—highlights the era's art, fashion and music with more than 300 cultural artifacts. "With the de Young's proximity to the Haight-Ashbury district, our exhibit will be the cornerstone of a citywide celebration," says Max Hollein, director and CEO of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco. Featuring the music of the Grateful Dead and Brigitta Bjerke textiles, the show will be a poignant survey of the moments that played a key role in the major social movements of that time. deyoung.famsf.org